

Funeral Meals at Central

Christianity is at its heart a meal fellowship. When we're happy, we eat. When we're sad, we eat. When we gather on the Lord's Day, we share in the Lord's Supper. Eating in the midst of death is a way to say we are committed to living, to Christian community, mutual love and support, and to the hope of the resurrection.

The bereaved may choose from four basic types of meals:

1. Coffee and Dessert
2. Cold Sandwich Buffet
3. Seasonal Lunch Buffet
4. Appetizer & Dessert Buffet for groups over 200

Additional Guidelines

---

- Items added to the menu must be provided by family and approved by food service coordinator in consultation with funeral reception leader in advance of the funeral (Example: A case of lefse that needs to be buttered and rolled w/sugar)
- Groups over 200 must have a stand-up reception.
- No substitutions for groups over 50 people.
