Exploring the promise of God for all

HOLY COMMUNION

Jesus says, Follow me

Saturday • June 29, 2019 • 5:00 pm

Jesus is the wide, open road that leads us into the next day

We have no good apart from God. That makes our Lord's call to follow him an invitation to freedom. This is freedom to revel in the Spirit's fruits: love, joy, peace, patience, and the like. This is the path of life.

BENEDICITE MINNESOTA

after "Benedicite Aotearoa"

O give thanks to our God who is good;
whose love endures forever.

Hills and valleys, pine forests and grasslands, glacial lakes, riverbanks and boundary waters, shelter belts and tall-grass prairies,
headwaters and Superior:

give to our God thanks and praise.

Rivers and streams, bogs and moraines, frost and ice, snow and rain,
ponds and lakes, laughing waters:

give to our God thanks and praise.

Maples and pines, cottonwood and dogwood, elm and ash, corn and oats, wheat and soybeans, wild rice and alfalfa, ragweed and thistle:

give to our God thanks and praise.

O give thanks to our God who is good;
whose love endures forever.

GREETING AND GATHERING PRAYER

Grace to you and peace from God our Creator,
the love at our beginning and without end,
in our midst and with us.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

Sovereign God, ruler of all hearts,
you call us to obey you, and you favor us with true freedom.

Keep us faithful to the ways of your Son,
that, leaving behind all that hinders us,
we may steadfastly follow your paths;
in Jesus' name we pray.

Amen.

The presider continues with words of welcome.

Word

READING

Love is the whole of the law

Galatians 5:1,13-25

For Paul, the freedom Christ gives is not permission to do whatever we want. It is the ability to be what we could not be otherwise. The power and guidance of the Spirit produce a different kind of life, one marked by the qualities Paul lists in this reading.

Word of God, word of life.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

(Celtic Alleluia #174)

The assembly stands and welcomes the gospel, singing:

Jesus says, Follow me and do not look back

Luke 9:51–62

Luke's gospel describes a long journey to Jerusalem during which Jesus teaches his followers about the costs of discipleship. Today's reading describes the outset of this journey.

before the reading:

The holy gospel according to ...
Glory to you, O Lord.

after the reading:

The gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.

OFFERING

"O Master, Let Me Walk with You"

arr. Kurt Kaiser

When bread and wine are broken and shared in the Lord's Supper an offering is gathered for the mission of the church, including the care of those in need. During this time, the table is set.

Let us pray together.

God of all creation,

you open wide your hand

and satisfy the need of every living thing.

You have set this feast before us.

Open our hands to receive it.

Open our hearts to embrace it.

Open our lives to live it.

We pray this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

The presider continues with the Great Thanksgiving, concluding:

Lord's Prayer (1975)

Our Father in heaven,

hallowed be your name, your kingdom come,

your will be done, on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,

now and forever. Amen.

Communion

All who come seeking Jesus are invited to receive these gifts of God.

Communion at this service is served standing at stations near the altar. Pick up a cup for wine or filled with grape juice as you approach. Grape juice and gluten-free bread are available upon request. The benefits of the sacrament are fully present in either the bread or the wine, should health reasons prevent you from receiving one of them. Children are welcome to receive communion or a blessing. Prayer at the chancel kneelers during communion is always welcomed.

Prayer after Communion

Let us pray.

Gracious provider,
you nourish us with holy food and drink,
and you open us up to the needs of others.
Refresh us with your Spirit,
that our words and deeds may proclaim your creative and life-giving Word,
Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.
