

Healing on the Sabbath

January 31, 2021

10:30 a.m.

PRELUDE

“Healing Presence”

Mark Sedio

This piece was commissioned by Trinity Lutheran Congregation (Minneapolis) to honor Dr. Donna Edwards in celebration of 50 years of service as their organist. Donna was also a physician in various Hennepin County Health Clinics. Two American hymn tunes are interwoven: Distress and I Will Arise.

OPENING SENTENCES

Jesus says to us:

“Why were you searching for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father’s house?”

Amazed, we speak well of him and his gracious works.

How God has anointed him to bring good news to the poor,

Release to the captives and let the oppressed go free.

“We are not worthy; only speak the word and we will be healed.”

Jesus calls to us:

“Come and stand here. Stretch out your hand. Do not weep. I say to you, rise!”

Help us say:

“A great prophet has risen among us. God has looked favorably on all people.”

OPENING HYMN

“Sing Praise to God, the Highest Good”

(see end of bulletin)

PRAYER OF THE DAY

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

Lord of the Sabbath, your followers were told not to work on the Sabbath, and yet they boldly plucked grain to show that you are Lord of all. The world tells us not to rest on the Sabbath. Show us how to rest boldly, rejecting conventions that go against your will, and instead praying and resting as you did up on the mountain, for the glory of your word and work, Lord Jesus Christ.

Amen.

FIRST READING

Psalm 92

Today's first reading is from the Psalms:

<sup>1</sup>It is good to give thanks to the Lord,
to sing praises to your name, O Most High;
<sup>2</sup>to declare your steadfast love in the morning,
and your faithfulness by night,
<sup>3</sup>to the music of the lute and the harp,
to the melody of the lyre.
<sup>4</sup>For you, O Lord, have made me glad by your work;
at the works of your hands I sing for joy.
Your thoughts are very deep!
<sup>6</sup>The dullard cannot know,
the stupid cannot understand this:
<sup>7</sup>though the wicked sprout like grass
and all evildoers flourish,
they are doomed to destruction forever,
<sup>8</sup>but you, O Lord, are on high forever.
<sup>9</sup>For your enemies, O Lord,
for your enemies shall perish;
all evildoers shall be scattered.
<sup>10</sup>But you have exalted my horn like that of the wild ox;
you have poured over me fresh oil.
<sup>11</sup>My eyes have seen the downfall of my enemies;
my ears have heard the doom of my evil assailants.
<sup>12</sup>The righteous flourish like the palm tree,
and grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
<sup>13</sup>They are planted in the house of the Lord;
they flourish in the courts of our God.
<sup>14</sup>In old age they still produce fruit;
they are always green and full of sap,
<sup>15</sup>showing that the Lord is upright;
he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

Word of God. Word of life.

Thanks be to God.

NARRATIVE READING

Luke 6:1-16

Today's narrative reading is from Luke:

<sup>1</sup>One sabbath while Jesus was going through the grainfields, his disciples plucked some heads of grain, rubbed them in their hands, and ate them. <sup>2</sup>But some of the Pharisees said, "Why are you doing what is not lawful on the sabbath?" <sup>3</sup>Jesus answered, "Have you not read what David did when he and his companions were hungry? <sup>4</sup>He entered the house of God and took and ate the bread of the Presence, which it is not lawful for any but the priests to eat, and gave some to his companions?" <sup>5</sup>Then he said to them, "The Son of Man is lord of the sabbath."

<sup>6</sup>On another sabbath he entered the synagogue and taught, and there was a man there whose right hand was withered. <sup>7</sup>The scribes and the Pharisees watched him to see whether he would cure on the sabbath, so that they might find an accusation against him. <sup>8</sup>Even though he knew what they were thinking, he said to the man who had the withered hand, "Come and stand here." He got up and stood there. <sup>9</sup>Then Jesus said to them, "I ask you, is it lawful to do good or to do harm on the sabbath, to save life or to destroy it?" <sup>10</sup>After looking around at all of them, he said to him, "Stretch out your hand." He did so, and his hand was restored. <sup>11</sup>But they were filled with fury and discussed with one another what they might do to Jesus.

<sup>12</sup>Now during those days he went out to the mountain to pray; and he spent the night in prayer to God. <sup>13</sup>And when day came, he called his disciples and chose twelve of them, whom he also named apostles: <sup>14</sup>Simon, whom he named Peter, and his brother Andrew, and James, and John, and Philip, and Bartholomew, <sup>15</sup>and Matthew, and Thomas, and James son of Alphaeus, and Simon, who was called the Zealot, <sup>16</sup>and Judas son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor

Word of God. Word of life.

Thanks be to God.

LORD'S PRAYER

Rejoicing in the presence of God here among us, let us pray as our Savior taught:

hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,

and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.
