PRELUDE

Prelude on "You Walk Along Our Shoreline"

Isaac Drewes

OPENING SENTENCES

Jesus says to us:

"Why were you searching for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?"

Amazed, we speak well of him and his gracious works.

How God has anointed him to bring good news to the poor,

Release to the captives and let the oppressed go free.

"We are not worthy; only speak the word and we will be healed."

Jesus calls to us:

"Come and stand here. Stretch out your hand. Do not weep. I say to you, rise!"

Help us say:

"A great prophet has risen among us. God has looked favorably on all people."

Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let us pray.

Lord Jesus of fisher folk, you taught your disciples to cast a wide net -- not for fish, but for people. Teach us the fishing craft. Make our fingers nimble so we may handle hearts and hands gently; make our minds quiet and patient while we wait for those who are not yet ready to receive you; and make our hearts hungry for your word, for the sake of the one who has captured our hearts already, Jesus Christ.

Amen.

FIRST READING

Psalm 90:14-17

Today's first reading is from the Psalms:

<sup>14</sup>Satisfy us in the morning with your steadfast love,
so that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

<sup>15</sup>Make us glad as many days as you have afflicted us,
and as many years as we have seen evil.

<sup>16</sup>Let your work be manifest to your servants,
and your glorious power to their children.

<sup>17</sup>Let the favor of the LORD our God be upon us,
and prosper for us the work of our hands —

O prosper the work of our hands!

Word of God. Word of life.

Thanks be to God.

NARRATIVE READING

Luke 5:1-11

Today's narrative reading is from Luke:

<sup>1</sup>Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, <sup>2</sup>he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. <sup>3</sup>He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. <sup>4</sup>When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch." <sup>5</sup>Simon answered, "Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets." <sup>6</sup>When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. <sup>7</sup>So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. <sup>8</sup>But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!" <sup>9</sup>For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; <sup>10</sup>and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people." <sup>11</sup>When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

Word of God. Word of life.

Thanks be to God.

LORD'S PRAYER

Rejoicing in the presence of God here among us, let us pray as our Savior taught:

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

BENEDICTION

God the creator strengthen you;
Jesus the beloved fill you;
and the Holy Spirit the comforter † keep you in peace.
Amen.

The peace of the Lord be with you all.
