

Ninth Sunday after Pentecost

July 25, 2021

PRELUDE

Meditation on "How Firm a Foundation"

OPENING DIALOG (based on Job 38 and Psalm 8)

Solo: "Calm to the Waves" (quartet)

O Lord, our Lord:

How majestic is your name in all the earth! (Psalm 8:1)

And God spoke to Job out of the whirlwind:

Where were you when I laid the earth's foundations? Tell me if you know.

On what were its footings sunk; who laid the cornerstone, while the morning stars sang together and the divine beings shouted? Tell me if you know.

When I look at your heavens, at what your fingers made – the moon and the stars that you set firmly in place – what are human beings that you are mindful of them – that you pay attention to them?

Solo: "Calm to the Waves" (quartet)

In your lifetime have you commanded the morning, informed the dawn of its place so that it would take hold of the earth by its edges and shake the wicked out of it?

Have you surveyed the earth's expanses and sought out the road to the place where light dwells?

You have made us slightly less than divine, crowning us with glory and grandeur. You have give us to rule over your handiwork, putting everything under our feet – sheep, cattle, wild animals, birds of the air and fish of the sea.

Have you gone to the sea's sources, walked into the chamber of the deep? Have death's gates been revealed to you? Have you surveyed the world's expanses?

O Lord, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth!

Solo: "Calm to the Waves" (quartet)

PRAYER OF THE DAY

O God of creation, eternal majesty, you preside over land and sea, sunshine and storm. By your strength pilot us, by your power preserve us, by your wisdom instruct us, and by your hand protect us, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

Amen.

SERMON READING

Today's sermon reading is from the gospel of Luke:

Luke 8:22-25

²²One day he got into a boat with his disciples, and he said to them, "Let us go across to the other side of the lake." So they put out, ²³and while they were sailing he fell asleep. A windstorm swept down on the lake, and the boat was filling with water, and they were in danger. ²⁴They went to him and woke him up, shouting, "Master, Master, we are perishing!" And he woke up and rebuked the wind and the raging waves; they ceased, and there was a calm. ²⁵He said to them, "Where is your faith?" They were afraid and amazed, and said to one another, "Who then is this, that he commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him?"

Word of God. Word of life.

Thanks be to God.

your kingdom come,

your will be done,

on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.
