Exploring the promise of God for all

Welcome to Central Lutheran Church.
You are welcome, no exceptions.

Here are a few notes you might find helpful for worship:

Bold print indicates responses spoken by all.

Masks are welcomed, and we ask everyone to mask up while singing.

Congregational hymns are found either printed in this bulletin, or in the red hymnal, Evangelical Lutheran Worship.

The Holy Spirit gathers us in unity on this first day of the week.

*Our opening hymn was written in the Dakota language by Joseph Renville sometime between 1835 and 1842. Based on images from Jeremiah 10:12-13, it was published in a text only version in 1842 and became popular among Dakota speaking congregations throughout the Midwest. Renville, who was born in St. Paul, was the son of a French-Canadian fur-trader father and a Dakota mother. He adapted this lovely native tune for a words and music version which was published later.
The tune, "Lac qui parle" (lake that speaks) is named after the place where he lived in Minnesota.*

GATHERING

OPENING HYMN

"Many and Great, O God"

Hymn 837

GREETING AND PRAYER OF THE DAY

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
the love of God,
and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
And also with you.

God of Abundance, you provide for our every need and shower us with lavish grace. Help us align our lives toward you and our neighbor, with constant concern for others rather than ourselves. For you are all and in all. In the name of the One who sustains and keeps.
Amen.

WORD

READING

Colossians 3:1-11

¹So if you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. ²Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth, ³for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. ⁴When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory.

⁵Put to death, therefore, whatever in you is earthly: fornication, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed (which is idolatry). ⁶On account of these the wrath of God is coming on those who are disobedient. ⁷These are the ways you also once followed, when you were living that life. ⁸But now you must get rid of all such things – anger, wrath, malice, slander, and abusive language from your mouth. ⁹Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have stripped off the old self with its practices ¹⁰and have clothed yourselves with the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of its creator. ¹¹In that renewal there is no longer Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave and free; but Christ is all and in all!

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Quartet: Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

All repeat "Alleluia."

GOSPEL

Luke 12:13-21

The Holy Gospel according to Luke.

Glory to you, O Lord.

¹³Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me." ¹⁴But he said to him, "Friend, who set me to be a judge or arbitrator over you?" ¹⁵And he said to them, "Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one's life does not consist in the abundance of possessions.”¹⁶Then he told them a parable: “The land of a rich man produced abundantly.¹⁷And he thought to himself, ‘What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?’¹⁸Then he said, ‘I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods.¹⁹And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.’²⁰But God said to him, ‘You fool! This very night your life is being demanded of you. And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?’²¹So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich toward God.”

Text writer Georgia Harkness was the first woman to hold a professorship at an American seminary (she taught at both Garrett School of Theology in Chicago and Pacific School of Religion in Berkeley). The tune was either composed or adapted by Louis Bourgeois for the Genevan Psalter, the sixteenth century hymnal of the Calvinists in Switzerland and France.

HYMN OF THE DAY

“Hope of the World”

printed on page 7
Stanza 1-quartet; 2 and 3-all

PRAYERS OF THE CHURCH

As the spirit calls, gathers and enlightens God’s people, we pray for the church, the world and all God’s creation.

Each petition concludes:

God who is with us:

Hear our prayer.

God of every time and space, we commend these prayers to you trusting that you hold and respond to them in your holy keeping.
Amen.

PEACE

The peace of the Lord be with you all.

And also with you.

MUSICAL OFFERING

“Each New Day”

Herber Romero,
arr. Mark Sedio

The first verse is sung by the soloist in Spanish.

The morning light of each new day breaking proclaims your glory, O God.

The fields and valleys, the forests waking reflect the joy of your Word.

You richly bless your creation, with love renew it each day:

Come join the loud celebration of creation's song of praise.

The hills resound with the songs of gladness, the breezes whisper your name.

The night is past, gone away all sadness, now life springs new once again.

With love you nurture your children and grant your people your peace.

O font of hope never changing, may our praises never cease.

MEAL

GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

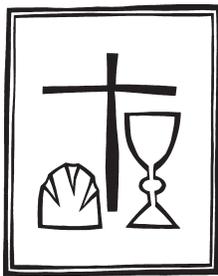

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

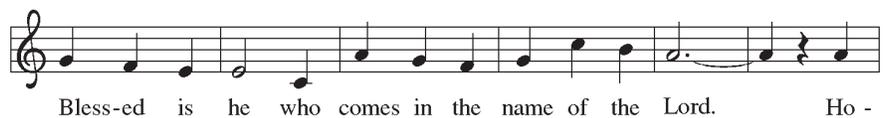

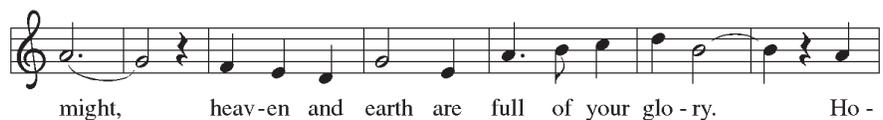

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

... in your all-forgiving grace and love,
singing our praises forever:

God feeds us with the presence of Jesus Christ.

The eucharistic prayer continues:

... to your heart, singing your glory through all time and space,
God in Community, Holy in One.

Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

COMMUNION

All are welcome to the Lord's table

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world; have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world; have mer - cy on us.
Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world; grant us peace, grant us peace.

Czech composer Vaňhal (1739-1813), whose given names translate as John the Baptist (similar to the French Jean Baptiste or Italian Giovanni Battista) was a Czech composer who spent most of his adult life in Venice and Vienna. In addition to numerous organ works, he composed 100 symphonies, and equal number of string quartets as well as chamber works all of which were published by leading publishers of his time. In addition to this work for violin, today's postlude is also by Vaňhal.

to the world.*

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Let us pray.
Life-giving God,
through this meal you have bandaged our wounds
and fed us with your mercy.
Now send us forth to live for others,
both friend and stranger,
that all may come to know your love.
This we pray in the name of Jesus.
Amen.

SENDING

BLESSING

Go now as people in whom love and righteousness embrace;
Live your lives in Christ,
rooted in grace,
full of thanksgiving and prayer.
May God give you peace,
Christ ground you in faith,
And the Holy Spirit + pour blessings upon you.
Amen.

CLOSING HYMN

Hymn 863

“My God, How Wonderful Thou Art”

*Stanza 1-all, in unison; 2 and 3-all, in harmony;
